

RESUME (2017)

James F. (Jim) Ebisch
15101 S. Cheney-Spokane Rd.
Cheney, WA. 99004
(509) 235-4955 / (509) 863-8551
jimmycrackcore@yahoo.com

Professional Objectives

Senior Geologist/Project Manager/VP Exploration

Education

1980 - BSc Geology: UW-Oshkosh (Oshkosh, WI.)
1984 - MSc Geology: Sul Ross State University (Alpine, TX.)
Thesis Topic: Proterozoic Age Basin Diagenesis That Created Stratabound Copper-Silver Deposits in Northwest Montana, USA

Experience (35 Years Tackling Complex Geologic Problems - Alaska to Argentina)

Major Companies (1980-1996) : Texasgulf, Newmont Mining, Kennecott
Junior Companies (1996-2014) : Way Too Many to List (Consistently Profitable Consulting Business Since 1996)

Professional Associations

1986 – Present: Oregon State Licensed Geologist #G982
2011 – Present: SME Registered Member #4066489 (NI 43-101 QP)

Forte

Accurate and Cost-Effective Geological Work, Structural Interpretation, Resource Definition, Project Management, Superb Technical Writing and Public Speaking

Publications

Mines and Madness (2007): A Treatise on the Origin of Wealth and a Diatribe on Trendy Scams that Beguile the Low Information Voter

Mission

Resource Discovery

Personal References

Ray DeMotte (Business) 765-977-8795
Mike Rasmussen (Geologist) 509-994-7648
Pat Smith (Geologist) 509-710-4874
Chuck Wilson (Project Manager) 509-690-8304